CASE NUMBER: 17CR48; 19CR117; 22CR459

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

- a. 8 years for the Material Support Conspiracy offense (17CR48).
- b. 3 years for the Obstruction offense (19CR117).
- c. 3 years for the Failure to Appear offense (22CR459).

All term shall run concurrently, with the standard and special conditions of release.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

- 1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- 2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- 3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
- 4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
- 5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
- 6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
- 7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Sinmyah Amara Ceasar

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: Sinmyah Amara Ceasar

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- a. Because of her extensive mental health history, Ms. Ceasar shall participate in a mental health trauma-focused treatment program approved by the Probation Department. She shall contribute to the cost of services rendered or any psychotropic medications as prescribed, via co-payment or full payment, in an amount to be determined by Probation, based upon her ability to pay and/or the availability of third-party payment. She shall provide complete and truthful financial disclosure to Probation. Probation may assess her ability to pay.
- b. Because of the nature of her Material Support Conspiracy and Obstruction offenses, Ms. Ceasar shall participate in polygraph examinations required by Probation to obtain information necessary for risk management and correctional treatment.
- c. Because of the nature of her offenses, and history of lack of compliance with conditions of release, Ms. Ceasar shall cooperate with Probation's Computer and Internet Management/Monitoring ("CIMP") program. Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, truthfully and completely identifying computer systems (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030 (e)(1)), Internet-capable devices, and/or any electronic media capable of data storage the defendant has access to, allowing an initial examination of the devices, and installation of monitoring software/hardware on the devices, at Ms. Ceasar's expense. The monitoring software/hardware is authorized to capture and analyze all data processed by and/or contained on the device, including the geolocation of the device. She must provide Probation advance notification of planned use or purchase of any devices. She shall not use any devices without probation's approval until compatibility with current monitoring software/hardware is determined and installation of monitoring software/hardware is completed. Probation may access the device and/or data captured by the monitoring software/hardware at any time with or without suspicion that she has violated the conditions of supervision. Given her history of undisclosed devices, she may be limited to possessing only one personal Internet-capable device, to facilitate Probation's ability to effectively manage and monitor the device. Ms. Ceasar shall also permit seizure and removal of computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and any electronic media capable of data storage for further analysis by law enforcement or Probation based upon reasonable suspicion that a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by Ms. Ceasar has or is about to occur. Failure to comply with the monitoring, seizure and/or search of any computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and any electronic media capable of data storage may result in adverse action such as sanctions and/or revocation. Ms. Ceasar shall inform all parties that access a monitored device, that the device is subject to search and monitoring.
- d. Because of the nature of her offenses, Ms. Ceasar shall truthfully and completely report to Probation any and all electronic communications service accounts (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2510(15)) used for user communications, dissemination and/or storage of digital media files (i.e., audio, video, images). This includes, but is not limited to, email accounts, social media accounts, and cloud storage accounts. She shall provide each account identifier and password, and shall report the creation of new accounts, changes in identifiers and/or passwords, transfer, suspension and/or deletion of any account within 5 days of such action. Failure to provide accurate account information may be grounds for revocation of release. She shall permit Probation to access and search any accounts using her credentials pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that she has violated a condition of her supervision and that the accounts to be searched contains evidence of this violation. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation of release.

DEFENDANT: Sinmyah Amara Ceasar

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION CONTINUE

- e. Because of the nature of her offenses, Ms. Ceasar shall not associate in person, directly or indirectly, through mail, electronic mail or telephone (Instagram, or any encrypted platform) with any individual with an affiliation to any organized crime groups, gangs or any other criminal enterprise, including organizations which advocate, support, or engage in terrorism; nor shall she frequent any establishment, or other locale where members of these groups may meet pursuant, but not limited to, a prohibition list provided by Probation. This condition shall not apply to houses of worship, but is without prejudice to site-specific prohibitions ordered upon application for appropriate modification.
- f. Because of the nature of her offenses, Probation may share information obtained during its monitoring of her phone, electronic, Internet-capable, and/or computer systems, communications accounts, and devices with the FBI, or other relevant law enforcement agencies, to assist Probation in risk management and assessing Ms. Ceasar's compliance with the terms of her supervision.
- g. Because of the nature of her Failure to Appear offense, Ms. Ceasar shall be subject to a curfew and monitored by location monitoring for a period of 6 months, using specific technology to be determined by Probation. She is restricted to her residence every day from 10:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. or as directed by the supervising officer. She shall abide by all technology requirements and shall pay all or part of the costs of participation in the location monitoring program, as directed by the Court and supervising officer.
- h. Because of the nature of her offenses, Ms. Ceasar shall submit her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. She shall advise any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that she has violated a condition of her supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
- i. Because of her previous uses of aliases, Ms. Ceasar shall not obtain or possess any form of identification in any name, Social Security number, and/or date of birth other than her true legal name, Social Security number, and date of birth. She shall not use, for any reason or purpose in any manner, any name, Social Security number, and/or date of birth other than her true legal name, Social Security number, and/or date of birth.
- j. Because of the nature of her Material Support Conspiracy offense, upon request, Ms. Ceasar shall provide Probation with full disclosure of her financial records, whether or not in her name, including co-mingled income, expenses, assets and liabilities, to include yearly income tax returns. With the exception of the financial accounts reported and noted within the presentence report, Ms. Ceasar is prohibited from maintaining and/or opening any additional individual and/or joint checking, savings, or other financial accounts, for either personal or business purposes, without the knowledge and approval of Probation. She shall cooperate with the Probation Officer in the investigation of her financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of her income and expenses. She shall cooperate in the signing of any necessary authorization to release information forms permitting Probation access to her financial information and records.
- k. Because of the nature of some of Ms. Ceasar's conduct, including requesting and receiving money related to the Material Support Conspiracy offense, Ms. Ceasar is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges, opening additional lines of credit, or incurring any new monetary loan, obligation, or debt, by whatever name known, without the approval of Probation. She is prohibited from becoming an authorized user on any other individual's credit, charge, or debt account, (or Zelle or internet capable platform) without the approval of Probation. She shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the fine and/or restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.

Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows:

- A ☒ Lump sum payment of $ 300.00 of which a balance of $175 is due immediately.
- ☐ not later than _____, or
☒ in accordance with ☐ C, ☐ D, ☐ E, or ☒ F below; or
- B ☐ Payment to begin immediately (may be combined with ☐ C, ☐ D, or ☐ F below); or
- C ☐ Payment in equal _____ (e.g., weekly, monthly, quarterly) installments of $ _____ over a period of _____ (e.g., months or years), to commence _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after the date of this judgment; or
- D ☐ Payment in equal _____ (e.g., weekly, monthly, quarterly) installments of $ _____ over a period of _____ (e.g., months or years), to commence _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision; or
- E ☐ Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or
- F ☒ Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:
The Court notes that Ms. Ceasar has paid $125 of her prior $200 special assessment imposed by Judge Weinstein in USA v Sinmyah Amara Ceasar, docket numbers, 17CR48 and 19CR117. She owes an additional $100 in 22CR459. A balance of $175, is due immediately, and shall be paid to the Clerk of Court, US District Court, (EDNY), 225 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, NY 11201, and shall include case caption, USA v. Sinmyah Amara Ceasar, and case numbers 17CR48; 19CR117; and 22CR459. Failure to pay the assessment will be considered a violation of supervised release.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
